Smile Lines. Health and Safety?

The town’s fire prevention officer was conducting a health and safety course at the local church. The officer said to the minister; “now imagine this: it is a Sunday morning and you have a number of people, spread throughout your church building. Some are in the choir stalls, some are in the kitchen, and some are in the nave. Suddenly a big fire breaks out. What are the first steps you would take?” The minister thought carefully for a moment. “Really big ones,” he said.

In a tough part of town a jelly baby is chatting to a Smartie. “It’s a dodgy pub, this. I hope there isn’t a fight. I’m soft inside and I’ll get hurt.” “Don’t worry” says the Smartie “I’m a hard case. I’ll protect you.” Just then in walk three Lockets looking for trouble. The Smartie runs and hides. The Lockets pick a fight with the jelly baby, beat him up and walk out. The Smartie comes over and asks the jelly baby if he’s OK. “I thought you were going to protect me” protests the jelly baby. “Not against the Lockets,” says the ashen faced Smartie. “They’re menthol!”

One out of Ten. A children’s class was studying the Ten Commandments. The teacher asked if anyone could recite one from memory. Susie raised her hand, stood tall and quoted, “You shall not take the covers off the neighbour’s wife!”
