Attorney: All your responses MUST be oral, OK? What school did you go to? Witness: Oral.

A: Do you recall the time that you examined the body? W: The autopsy started around 8:30 p.m. A: And Mr. Denton was dead at the time? W: If not, he was by the time I finished. A: Doctor, before you performed the autopsy, did you check for a pulse? W: No. A: Did you check for blood pressure? W: No. A: Did you check for breathing? W: No. A: So, then it is possible that the patient was alive when you began the autopsy? W: No. A: How can you be so sure, Doctor? W: Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar. A: I see, but could the patient have still been alive, nevertheless? W: Yes, it is possible he could have been alive and practicing law.

A: Are you qualified to give a urine sample? W: Are you qualified to ask that question? A: Doctor, how many of your autopsies have you performed on dead people? W: All of them. The live ones put up too much of a fight.

Some musings on everyday life: I don't do drugs or alcohol, 'casue I find I get the same effect just by standing up really fast. I love being married. It's so great to find that one special person you want to annoy for the rest of your life.

People want the front seats of the bus; the back of the church and the centre of attention!
