Walsingham: Cornish Pilgrimage arranged from here. Cost £425. (En suite £504) Dates are 9 – 15 October. £20 deposit (non returnable) balance by 31st August. The cost covers travel, including outings to Oxburgh Hall, and Norwich, bed and breakfast, a light lunch and evening meal, with a packed lunch for the homeward journey. Book with Christine 362619. This will be your last opportunity to go with Christine, as she is making this her last year of organising the Cornish Pilgrimage. This is a special year, not only the Year of Mercy, but the shrine has been raised to a Minor Basilica. They have great plans for rebuilding, to create an infrastructure that will serve the 21st century pilgrims, so do come and pray in this holy place.

Dates looking ahead, for your diary now.

Question; What is it that has an eye yet cannot see?

A needle

Midwives and abortion don't go together. Midwives bring babies into the world. The abortion industry in Britain kills 500 unborn every day. Use the postcards to join the call for Cathy Warwick to resign. Cathy Warwick, head of the Royal College of Midwives is also chair of Britain's biggest commercial abortion company BPAS. There is also a coupon on the Pro-life Times you can use.

A Man for All Seasons 5 – 10 September –. Open air theatre production at Buckfast Abbey. Robert Bolt's award winning play which tells the story of Thomas More's clash with King Henry VIII is an intense play about conscience and faith. Performances nightly at 7.30pm. Tickets available on 01364 645506. Why not make a night of it? Dining and accommodation packages available. The performance on Thursday 8th September will be BSL signed for the deaf. Buckfast Abbey is privileged to be the home of a major relic of St Thomas More, namely the hair shirt he wore during his life. The hair shirt can be seen in the Abbey Church from the end of August.

Smile Lines:

Life Abundant. Two seminary students decided to spend part of their holiday in the countryside doing outreach missionary work. They stopped at an old house, and proceeded up the path through a gauntlet of screaming children and a washing line heavy with wet clothes. When they got near the door, the woman of the house stopped scrubbing the steps, brushed her hair and perspiration from her brow, and asked what they wanted. "We'd like to tell you how you can live forever," they answered. The exhausted woman hesitated for a moment and then replied, "Thank you, but I don't think I could stand it!"

Forgiveness; A Sunday School teacher had just concluded her lesson and wanted to make sure she had made her point. She said, "Can anyone tell me what you must do before you can obtain forgiveness of sin?" There was a short pause and then, from the back of the room, a small boy spoke up. "Sin," he said.
