This weeks newsletter covers two weeks, because of the Walsingham Pilgrimage, but the same information will be printed each week, so you will have the readings and very helpful front cover to keep you up to date.

We welcome Fr Brian Stocks from Plymouth this weekend, and next weekend Fr David Mead at 5 p.m. & Fr Cadoc Leighton from Camborne at 6.30 p.m.

ISLES OF SCILLY:

Liturgy this Sunday 10.30 a.m. Watch notice Board.

The Russian Choir from St Petersburg will be visiting us again for another excellent evening of music on Monday, 17th October 7.30 p.m. They are not to be missed, make a note in your diary now! If you can display any posters do take some bring all your friends

Watch and Pray. will take a break this Tuesday, during the Walsingham Pilgrimage. Open again on 18th.

The Annual Mass count takes place in October.

CAFOD Family Harvest Fast Friday was last Friday.

This Harvest Fast Day we are invited to join 32 year old Nicanora, from Bolivia, on her journey from poverty to abundance. We can stand alongside as she learns new skills and receives materials and seeds that will enable her to grow enough food to feed her family. Please fill a Fast Day envelope and ask your family, friends, neighbours or colleagues to give what you and they can.

Children's Liturgy: held during the 11 a.m. Mass needs more adult helpers to run it. Resources and support are both available. Please speak to Fr. Philip, Michelle Woodfield or Anthea Smith if you can assist us.

Want to become a catholic? Want to know more about it or the Faith? The next enquirer's course will soon be starting. Meetings are on Friday's from 2 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Register your interest by phoning either Fr Philip at the Parish Office 362619 or Bill Smith on 350059.

The Big Picture: continues on Tuesdays at 7.30pm, with the final session on October 18th

Christmas Bazaar preparation meeting in the parish hall on Thursday, 20th October at 7 p.m. All welcome. Boxes to start stocking the stalls are in the churches now.

First Holy Communion: Is your child in Year 3? If you and your child would like to be prepared for the sacraments of 1st reconciliation and 1st Holy Communion, please let Fr Philip or Helen Curnow (332735) or your teacher in our parish school know and we can make preparations.

West Cornwall Catenian Group 930 meets on Friday 14th October 2016 at 7.00pm at The Longboat Inn, Market Jew Street, Penzance for a convivial meal and a short meeting. If any Catholic gentleman would like to join us please contact our Chairman Steve Driver on 740646 or Keith Allen 07831 162743, Charles Beeton 731335

'How far should we agree with Richard Dawkins?' You are warmly invited to hear Tony Cothey who will be leading a discussion on the question, to be held in the Pearson Room of Truro Cathedral on Sunday 9th October, 7.00 pm – 9.30 pm. Anyone who is interested is welcome to contact Tony on 01736 740739.

Samaritan's Purse Shoe Boxes This year are to be in by 13th November. Bring to our church by that date or before. Donation remains the same at £3. Any queries to Joan Griffin 798979. Thank you for your support

World Mission Sunday is the weekend of 22/23 October. The Holy Father invites all Catholics to contribute to a collection for Missio, his official charity for overseas mission. This day unites Catholics all over the world in prayer, celebration and care for the mission of the Church. This year you will be directly helping missionaries in Rwanda and around the world to help heal the broken hearted. Gift Aid envelopes are provided. Thank you.

Bishop Mark will be coming on an official Visitation of the Parish on 29/30 October. He will be all Masses, with the suggestion that those who wish to meet at the 5 p.m. come from 4.30 p.m. as we will need to get to Hayle for 6.30. There will be some time after Hayle to chat, as at St Ives (Briefly). After the 11 Mass there will be a buffet lunch esp. to meet with the Evangelisation group, but all are welcome.

Evangelisation group and any others interested meet on Monday 24th 7.30 p.m. for prayer & discussion

The Penlee Lifeboat Press Officer currently has a fund raising appeal to raise money for four young Spanish crewman who tragically lost their lives to the sea in October 1963. You can view this post and the Crowdfunder <https://www.facebook.com/penlee.lifeboat/posts/1249576045103575>

Research has taken me to the Roman Catholic section at Penzance Cemetery where is located the mass unmarked grave of these four young men. We are now fundraising from the Penlee Facebook page to purchase some form of memorial to mark their last resting place. I've also tracked down some family and the last surviving crew member of the Juan Ferrer - they are all supporting our appeal and hope to travel to Penzance in the next couple of months. I have also established that on the Friday morning after the wreck, four survivors of the shipwreck attended Solemn Requiem Mass at Penzance Roman Catholic Church for the eleven who had lost their lives. The Celebrant was Father S Hackett, newly appointed priest in charge at Penzance. On the following Monday morning Father Seamus Flynn blessed the coffins before they were placed in the hold of the coaster Ignacio Ferrer before being taken back to Bilbao. This sad story links us all together and I was wondering whether you could bring our fundraising efforts to the attention of your congregation. There is no doubt that we will achieve our goal and it would be really nice to have Penzance Roman Catholic Church working alongside us.

The Pope's Prayer Intentions for October.

Universal: Journalists: That journalists, in carrying out their work, may always be motivated by respect for truth and a strong sense of ethics.

Smile Lines: Little Johnny went downstairs in floods of tears. "What's the matter" said his mother. Johnny said "Dad was hanging a picture and hit his thumb with the hammer." "That's not so bad" said his mother. "I know you're upset but a big boy like you shouldn't cry at something like that. Why didn't you just laugh?" "I did," sobbed Johnny.
