Bishop Mark has asked all Parish Churches in the diocese to have exposition from 7- 8.30 p.m. with time for Reconciliation (confessions) each Tuesday of Lent. This means no specific Penitential Liturgies this Lent, but each Parish Church in the diocese should be open for Confessions at that time. Also on Good Friday after 3 p.m.

Writing in last weeks Catholic Universe, Bishop Mark wrote about Lent and in passing mentioned his visitation to the Isles of Scilly, and did say for all to read "you must recall, I live, I think in the most beautiful diocese in the country." I'm sure you will agree.

Divine Intervention: a series of Conversations between our own Tony Cothey and Methodist Minister Stephen Dawes, at Truro cathedral, the next session on 11th March 7.30- 9.30 p.m. in the Pearson Room. Admission Free, but booking essential as demand is very high and space limited. If interested please contact Tony on 740739 or email a.cothey@btinternet.com

Choral Evening Prayer & Benediction 6 pm next Sunday

Refugees: A meeting will take place on 11 March at All Saints Church in Highertown, Truro from 10 – 3 p.m. to look at what is happening across Cornwall on the wider refugee crisis. Speakers are already booking in from community groups across Cornwall involved in working with refugees both here and by taking donations, food, clothes and medical supplies to the refugees across Europe and the Middle East. This will help people link up, and see gaps and overlaps; and importantly move the emphasis away from the resettlement agenda. To book a place link is <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/cornwall-a-million-stories-of-sanctuary-tickets-20730654947>

Women's World of Day of Prayer will be celebrated on Friday 4th March. This year's service has been written by the Christians women of Cuba. The title of the service is 'Receive children.
