Smile Lines:

Hospital Regulations require a wheel chair for patients being discharged. However, while working as a student nurse, I found one elderly gentleman already dressed and sitting on the bed with a suitcase at his feet, who insisted he didn't need my help to leave the hospital. After a chat about rules, he reluctantly let me wheel him to the lift. On the way down I asked him if his wife was meeting him. 'I don't know,' he said, 'she's still upstairs in the bathroom changing out of her hospital gown.'

A man was a telling his neighbour, 'I've just bought a new hearing aid. It cost me over two thousand pounds, but it's state of the art. It's perfect.' 'Really,' answered the neighbour, 'what kind is it?' 'Twelve thirty.'

How prayer reaches God. An anxious mother went to seek help from her priest. "How do we know if our prayers are heard by God?" she asked. "My ten year old daughter says her prayers every night, but I am not sure they are reaching heaven." Touched by her worry, the priest spent some time explaining to her about God's omniscience and omnipresence....but still the mother looked worried. Finally he asked her why she thought her daughter's prayers would NOT be heard by God. The mother explained; "because instead of saying 'amen', when she finishes, she says, 'click, send'."

The voice of love. "Do you love me with all your heart?" Becky asked her boyfriend on St Valentine's Day. "Mmm hmm," said Dave, checking his emails. "Do you think I'm the most beautiful girl on the planet?" "Mmm hmm" said Dave, sending a text. "Do you think my lips are like rose petals?" "Mmm hmm," said Dave, checking his Facebook page. "Oh Dave," Becky sighed, "you say the most beautiful things!"

A musing on everyday life: I don't approve of political jokes...I've seen too many of them get elected.
