Next Sunday is the Solemnity of St Boniface, Principal Patron of our diocese of Plymouth. Boniface was born as Winfrith at Crediton in about 675. He became the Apostle of Germany, and died a martyr on 5th June, Pentecost, at a Confirmation in 754.

There is a Diocesan Pilgrimage to Crediton, next Sunday 5th June. An afternoon visit with Vespers and Benediction at 4 p.m. and closing about 5p.m.

The Parish will start this Tuesday at 7.30 p.m. a 12 session step by step journey through Salvation History called The Big Picture (You, the Bible and God's Big Plan). The series is produced by CaFE and the Bible Society and comprises a 15 minute weekly DVD clip with short daily Bible readings for prayer and reflection. Each Tuesday we will meet to share views and experiences, and prepare for the next session. Each participant requires their own Big Picture book which costs £10 (the book includes a DVD of the series). The course will be run in two sections of six weeks each with a break during the summer. . All are invited to join in this exciting journey.

ISLES OF SCILLY: Liturgy & Holy Communion 10.30 And for the next few weeks. Next Mass is 25th June.

Music and Arts Festival. 'There's a wideness in God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea.' Thanks to so many people for a very happy and uplifting festival again this year. The stunning floral displays, the various art works from parishioners and from our own parish school and Humphry Davy Academy. The amazing variety, talent and age range of our musical performers, plus the volunteer stewards and caterers, left us with a very happy week to remember. If anyone was away or would like to donate towards the expenses of the week, please drop your donation in Presbytery letterbox or hand in at church.

The Festival Painting Raffle is 'Sunrise' Smeaton's Pier, St Ives, Cornwall, by our very own Colin Orchard RBA. This will come round our churches over the next few months, to give you all and our visitor's time to view it and buy your tickets. It will be drawn in the early Autumn.

Smile Lines: Encyclopaedias. Sorting out books for the local fete, a parishioner came across some well-worn and dusty illustrated encyclopaedias, treasured from his childhood. Unwilling to part with them, he put them on a shelf in the garage where his small grandchildren found them and spent many happy hours looking at the pictures. These books however caused him great embarrassment the day the parish priest came to visit. One of his grandchildren suddenly said: "Granddad, can we go look at those dirty books you keep in the garage?"
