Online Event – What is God saying to the Church?

March 2022 marks two years since the pandemic hit much of the world. What is God saying to the Church in the last two years? What have we learned? What should be our focus moving forward? A live online event featuring, Bishop Robert Barron, Fr James Mallon (of Divine Renovation) and Rev'd Nicky Gumble (of ALPHA), on Tuesday 1st March at 6pm. To Register please access through: <https://www.divinerenovation.org/events>

Youth Ministry Diocese: our next event will be in Cornwall, Newquay Parish. 12th February 10 -4.

Rise Theatre are travelling around the diocese working with groups of young people aged 10 – 18+. The aim of the project is to encourage our young people to get together and meet others in their area. My hope is that this will be the foundations to building a community amongst our young people so they can begin to feel a sense of belonging. The event is based on the piece of scripture, Corinthians 12:27. Young people will explore the importance of them as an individual being part of the community. The event will begin at 10 and finish 4.00. Volunteers can stay with their groups and help with the event or parents can simply drop their young people off. Please can you encourage families to complete the enrolment form: <https://forms.office.com/r/2Utshf598r> this will help us to order the right amount of food and give us permission to take photos and film the young people. Please contact me if you have any further questions about the event. Saskia

COVID-19 Route Map Step 4 Guidance: Wisely we continue cautiously. The Guideline for churches say that Masks/ Face coverings are still encouraged (unless medically exempt). There is very strong evidence that the main mode of this variants viral transmission is through aerosol, and that risk from surface and touch transmission is very small indeed.' Care must be taken to ensure everyone is, & feels, safe. During singing face coverings MUST be worn by the congregation. This applies also when talking to others. Keep your distance. HANDS-FACE-SPACE. If using kneelers make sure you are NOT breathing down someone's neck! We no longer need to sign in.:

Catholicism can be a hard religion to live by but is a beautiful religion in which to die. The rituals and prayers with which we surround death, the Church's clear-eyed acceptance of sin and failure and her confidence in her mission to channel God's love and mercy to her children, are very moving, but perhaps one only begins to appreciate them when one is dying oneself. I like, too, the combination of infinite trust in God and the lack of presumption. No zipping into heaven for me but, I hope, the final purification of purgatory." (Words from Sister Catherine Wybourne, who is terminally ill)

Do remember purgatory is part of heaven, not hell.

Have you asked the question 'Is God calling me to be a Priest': Day of Reflection - Accompanying you in your journey of discernment of vocation. Fr Jacek Kostuch is offering a day of reflection for men (18 + ... if younger we would still like to hear from you with parents' permission) from 10:00-17:00 on Saturday 26 February at Fowey Retreat House. Fr Jacek will be accompanied by at least one other priest. The day will be a time for Mass, additional time praying, reflection, and sharing a meal together. For further information and to register for the event, please contact Fr Jacek on Jacek.Kostuch@prcdtr.org.uk by 23rd February 2022 at the latest please. Arrangements can be made to collect you from St Austell Station before 9:15, and returned after, if required.
