Bishop Mark sent a pastoral letter last weekend, which I read out and made available. Part of it has 'I urge all Catholics to take up again regular attendance at Sunday Mass. Physical attendance, for those who are able, can be a practice that is lived in these days as an act of solidarity with our brothers and sisters who are suffering. We believe in 'the economy of Grace'. Where we do not find love, we pour love in, in the hope that eventually we can draw love out.'

COVID-19 Route Map Step 4 Guidance: Wisely we continue cautiously to get back to 'normal.' The Guideline for churches say that Masks/ Face coverings are encouraged. If you are kneeling please do make sure that you are not breathing down anyone's neck. Holy Water stoups can be refilled. Please use after sanitising hands.

From Fr. David: 'Despite Brexit, Covid, shortages etc. I have managed to get my new booklet on St Piran printed. A short text and 56 photos. If you would like to buy a copy, I'm asking for a donation of at least £5 which will be given to our church building fund.

CAFOD'S walk against hunger Lent Challenge. There are 200 million children in the world whose lives are at risk from malnutrition. Do 5k a day for 40 days, and you'll conquer your 200k target in time for Easter. To take part go to cafod.org.uk/walk

New Life: Congratulations to Paul and Sarah Munday who have a new son, Philip Gregory, who was born last week. Like his three brothers, he is named after one of the apostles and one of the four fathers of the church. He is a cousin of Leonardo, the son of Marie (nee Munday) and Stefano, who was born last June. We now have five grandsons and no granddaughters. Both Paul and Marie attended St Mary's Catholic School and were altar servers in both Penzance and St Just for many years. John & Maureen Munday.

Congratulations also to Fr. Louis Rieunier, who has been invited to be the Spiritual Director at the Pontifical Beda College in Rome, from September 2022. Like Fr David, Fr Louis trained for priesthood at the Beda. I sent Fr. Louis our good wishes, and added I thought the warmth of Rome would be better for his health (which he agreed, though not the raging heat of August) I imagine he won't be driving in Rome!!

Our choir is looking for new members to join the friendly & committed group, especially sopranos. Based at the church in Rosevean Road in Penzance, we sing at the 11am Solemn Mass on Sundays, Holy Days & Choral Evening Prayer on the 3rd Sunday of the month at 6pm. The music ranges from Plainsong through Polyphony, to quality contemporary music, with an enthusiastic congregation who also raise the roof in hymns and other sung parts of the Masses! We rehearse on a Wednesday evening & basic sight-reading skills are helpful, but not essential if you are open to developing your musical ability & vocal tuition forms part of our rehearsals. You don't need to be a Catholic to join us, and there are already Christians of other denominations who are members of the choir-we just ask you take on the ethos of what we do in leading music in worship..... Does this interest you, or someone you know? If so, please call the parish office & leave a message for the Director of Music on; 01736 362619

Helping our brothers and sisters in Ukraine. As part of Caritas Internationalis, the global Caritas family, Caritas Plymouth has been asked to provide guidance to the parishes in our diocese about how we can donate to support those in crisis.
