'Sweet August doth appear' Holiday and time for a break

It is good for many parish activities to have a break.

So much coming and going, parishioners' families and visitors. Just getting around with the traffic usually takes at least twice as long, if not more. Good to slow life down.

Microsoft email have not been responding much this week. I find it very tiresome, as so much these days is by email, and can't respond, which makes for much frustration and stress. Many of you may know as soon as I resign from Ecclesiastical Office (the official way of retiring as priests' don't retire from priesthood) I shall be offline. To me bliss!

Masses continue as ever, and at the usual times.

With not too much going on and people coming and going I publish two weeks at a time. Then if you are away, or have to miss, you know what is on when you return.

There are spaces for Mass intentions if you have any.

Cream Tea next Sunday 13th at 3 p.m. You are invited to a social time and chat together at a cream tea. Most monthly/weekly events & meetings have a break in August, but for those not away or not mowed out by family do join us. We would be glad of gifts of cream and scones. We have plenty of jam! Donations towards the tea, and of course always a raffle. Prizes welcome.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is on Tuesday 15th August. A Holy Day, when we all ought to try and be at Mass. The usual Holy Day pattern:

Vigil Mass 7 p.m. in Hayle on 14th and on the day itself:

Mass in St Ives at 12noon and Penzance Mass at 10 a.m. and Solemn Mass at 7.30 a.m.

Bingo: next eyes down, not closed for August is on Wednesday 16th All welcome 2 p.m. in the Hall.

Catenian Circle 369 (West Cornwall) next meeting is on Monday 21st August at 7 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Prayer for Ukraine:

You are invited to join those who pray a public Rosary for peace in Ukraine every Saturday until further notice at 11 a.m. in Lemon Quay, Truro, outside Hall for Cornwall

Silver Jubilee collection for one of the new north aisle windows of St John Henry Newman. To date, the fund is currently at £5,090 and that the cost of the window and its installation is approx. £7K (There may be more if paid direct into the bank, Christine will only know this when the bank statement comes later this week. You are well on the way)

St Swithun's day 15th July. I always notice the weather especially if it rains on St Swithun's day, which it certainly did this year. The legend was it will rain for 40 days and nights. I have usually noticed maybe not solid rain for that time, but certainly a very unsettled period. Some sceptic presenter on the radio poured scorn on the legend, saying no Anglo-Saxon saint can sort out the weather. Who so far has been proved right for 2023!

Save train station booking offices petition and discussion now extended to 1st September.

Catholic Children's Society (Plymouth Diocese) Annual Appeal: Bank Holiday Weekend of 26/27 August.

Canon John Denny writes The theme of Pope Francis' message for this year's World Day of the Poor is from the book of Tobit 4:7

'Do not turn your face away from anyone who is poor'.

As we continue to navigate through these challenging economic times, we are only too aware that there are many families and individuals in our midst who are facing tremendous strain due to the very high cost of living. The Catholic Children's Society Plymouth remains on the front line in responding to an ever-growing number of those seeking support to meet their basic needs and making every effort not to turn anyone away. However, the mounting demand has taken a toll on the Society's resources, depleting its funds. The Society has benefitted enormously from the compassionate and generous giving of so many people. Their invaluable contributions continue to make a significant difference in helping bring comfort and practical support to many families and individuals who are especially struggling in these difficult times.

I appeal to your generosity, once again, to support the remarkable work of the Catholic Children's Society through this Annual Appeal, with thanks for your generosity in the past, and may God bless you for responding as generously as you can to this year's Appeal.

The usual retiring collection.

Now sweet August hath appeared, September can't be far behind, and we hope activities and more of them can start up again. Apart from Bingo, and the Wednesday Friendship Club both open to anyone, a book club is suggested, which our authoress Chris Higgins will initially lead, and also a creative craft time, e.g. sewing, knitting, card making, or whatever your craft is; or even just turn up for tea and a chat.

Morning Prayer and Rosary will also resume on days when there is no Mass.

Journey of Faith (RCIA) will also resume later in September.
