ISLES OF SCILLY

The next scheduled Sunday Mass will be on 14th April at 10.30 a.m. when we shall welcome Fr. Dominique Catta from Paris

All Masses as announced and other events etc. see notice board. God Bless you all. Fr. Philip.

Grateful thanks as ever to Fr Paul Andrew and Fr David, and to Fr. Royston Price who has been with us for the Triduum.

Grateful thanks also to everyone who contributed to the very worthy celebration of the whole of Holy Week.

To our servers, sacristans, cleaners, flower arrangers, paschal candle painter, welcomers, and anyone else, thanks. Fr James and Fr Royston were overwhelmed by the standard of celebration, and especially the music on all occasions. Many thanks to David, the choir and all musicians for lifting us heavenward in the great week. This Triduum & Easter marks 30 years of David being Director of Music & the Choir. Congratulations on his achievement.

I was watching from afar during the Triduum, as from the middle floor of the Presbytery, with the new north aisle clear windows I can see movement in the church, just when people are sitting or standing, so could follow with my Missal where the Liturgy was at. Most impressive was the start of the Easter Vigil, with the dreadful wind and rain, how using the space now below and the internal ramp, seeing the candlelight gradually filling the whole church. Wonderful.

My dear, dear people, I continue to be overwhelmed and deeply moved by the number of cards, emails, and some foods, and the very touching words in so many cards/letters. Do accept my thanks, as I'm not able to respond to them all. I really feel so supported by your prayers, which all we can pray is God's will be done.

I still am physically weak, even if sounding not too weak on the phone! Like King Charles I have to avoid crowds or visitors, mainly for fear of infection.

It was a very moving, emotional experience coming in at the end of the 11 Mass on Easter Day to see and speak to all there. I hope to see Hayle and St Ives this weekend. God bless us all and keep us in his care.

Divine Mercy Sunday is this weekend. All are invited to the afternoon prayers from 2.30 – 3.30 p.m. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available. The 3 O'clock prayer, the 'hour of mercy' and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and veneration of the Image, and Benediction. Even if you can't come, please say the prayer below at 3 p.m.

"You expired Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and the ocean of Mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us. O Blood and Water which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a Fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You.

Moving on.....The Sacred Heart chapel floor tiles for which the total required is £6,800, of which at the present we have had an additional £1K plus other donations leaving a shortfall of £4,350. If you would like to contribute towards these please fill in a form in our fund-raising booklet and hand in to the Presbytery Office

Date Ahead: Our Biennial Music & Arts Festival is this year from Sunday 12th -Sun 19th May. Daily evening Concerts at 7.30 p.m. and other day time activities. Book the dates in your diary now. Flyers will soon be available.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for APRIL

For the Role of Women: that the dignity and worth of women be recognized in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

For peace and justice throughout the world and an end to all war. For all anywhere caught up in natural disaster.

For our diocese and the choice of a new bishop

For new members of the Church across the world: may they grow in love and understanding.

For priests, deacons, catechists and teachers, and all who form people in faith, may they deepen their own faith through those they meet.

The sick in Hospitals or Hospice: Fr. Philip, Ray & Christine Blaker, Tom Dauncey Jnr, Jackie Corsi, Sue Rowies, Hugo, Caroline Schofield, Grace Bailey, Fr.
