World Day of Prayer for Vocations 7/8 May 2022 Pope Francis writes: 'Dear Friends on this particular day, but also in the ordinary pastoral life of our communities, I ask the Church to continue to promote vocations. May she touch the hearts of the faithful and enable each of them to discover with gratitude God's call in their lives, to find courage to say 'yes' to God.' Pope St John Paul II said, "Considering that the Eucharist is the greatest gift Our Lord gives to his Church, we must ask for priests... we must ask insistently for this gift. We must ask for it on our knees."

Vocations to Priesthood - Day of Recollection Our next Day of Recollection for men discerning their vocation will be held on Saturday 21st May, 2022 from 10:00 to 16:00 at Sclerder Abbey, near Looe, Cornwall. The day will include Mass; a time of Adoration; a short conference; an opportunity for Confession and 'One to One talks' with serving Priests from our Diocese; and sharing food together (this will be provided – please let us know of special dietary requirements). Under 18s are welcome to attend with parents' permission.

For further information and to register for the event, please contact Fr Jacek Kostuch on Jacek.Kostuch@prcdtr.org.uk by 16th May 2022 at the latest. Arrangements can be made to collect you from Liskeard Station before 9:15, and returned after, if required

On Wednesday, 27th April it was announced that the Holy Father has appointed Bishop Mark to be the Archbishop of Cardiff and the Bishop of Menevia, these two dioceses being united in persona Episcopi (in the person of the Bishop). This process of transition will take two months, during which time Bishop Mark will continue to lead our diocese with the more limited powers of a Diocesan Administrator. Once Bishop Mark has formally been installed into his new dioceses on 20 June, our Cathedral Chapter of Canons will meet to elect a priest to be our Diocesan Administrator and, with the help of other members of the clergy and diocesan officers, he will lead and oversee the daily life and mission of our diocese, its parishes and schools until a successor to Bishop Mark is appointed by the Holy Father in due course.

During the period until a new diocesan bishop is appointed, the ancient principle sede vacante, nihil innovetur (when the diocese has no bishop, nothing new may be done) must be observed whereby there is a limit to the decisions and actions that can be taken. However, this certainly does not mean everything must come to a halt. The Gospel of Salvation must continue to be proclaimed and the life and mission of the Church in the Diocese of Plymouth carried forward, albeit in anticipation of the gift of a new successor to the Apostles to lead us and, through whose communion with the Bishop of Rome, our diocese is fully united with the Catholic Church throughout the world.

During this time of transition, our primary task as a diocese and in our parishes will be to unite together in earnest prayer that:

- the Holy Spirit will guide all those involved in the process leading to the appointment of a new bishop for our diocese;
- the one who is called to take on this essential apostolic ministry among us will be given the generosity and courage to accept it;
- we - the clergy, consecrated men and women and lay faithful of the diocese - will welcome our new bishop with joy and respond eagerly to his leadership in faith and mission.

A Diocesan Mass of Thanksgiving for the leadership and ministry of Bishop Mark as Bishop of Plymouth will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St Mary and St Boniface, Plymouth, on Monday, 30 May, at 12noon.

St Ives: Rosary after Mass on Wednesdays, during Mary's month of May.

St Ives: except for Mass, the church must remain closed until further notice, as someone deliberately flings open the internal doors to let the pigeons in.

Everyone – take up your spiritual arms! Come and pray a public Rosary for peace in the Ukraine. Time: 11am on Saturday 14th May; Place: on Lemon Quay, outside the Hall for Cornwall, Truro.

The feast of St Rita of Cascia will be celebrated at St Rita's Centre, Honiton, Devon on Sunday 22nd May with Mass at 12 noon followed by the blessing and distribution of roses for the sick. The day will conclude with Benediction at 3.30pm.

Two shops will be open that day for sale of religious articles; you can also make your orders on our website <https://www.stritascentre.org/st-rita-s-shop> and collect their items on site on the feast day. Hot drinks will be available all day but visitors should bring a packed lunch.

Proud new grandparents Neil & Nicky McFadden welcome Theodore Harold, son of Liam & Heidi.

COVID-19 Route Map Step 4 Guidance: Wisely we continue cautiously to get back to 'normal.' The Virus is still very much alive and active in our area, so please still keep in mind HANDS-FACE-SPACE

The Guideline for churches say that Masks/ Face coverings are encouraged. If you are kneeling please do make sure that you are not breathing down anyone's neck.
