Thank you for easter - I can't tell you how moved I was by our Easter celebrations. Congratulations to those newly received. Thank you to everybody for all your dedication and hard work. And thank you for your generosity and kindness.

From father Michael – “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus! According to his great MERCY, he has caused us to be born again.....”

“Give praise to the Lord, for he is good, his MERCY endures for ever”

The classic image of the DIVINE MERCY shows two rays of light, red and white, shining from the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is the same heart into which, in today’s gospel, the Apostle Thomas, is invited to place his hand. This is the same heart from which Thomas receives the faith to declare “My Lord and my God”. This is the same heart from which we receive the forgiveness of our sins. “Jesus I trust in you.”

Getting in and out of church - If you are fortunate enough to be able to park your car in the car park your days of having to clamber up the steps at the side of the presbytery may be at an end. Sadly, my Health and Safety advisors tell me that we still can’t use the new entrance to the church, pending the completion of the internal flooring. But you can walk round to the South side of the church and gain access there. Hopefully, it will not be too long before that internal flooring will be completed. Thank you for your forbearance and generosity in making this all possible.
