CAFOD & Seeds and the World Bank.

The world is facing a food crisis. Climate Change, Covid19, and the war in Ukraine and elsewhere mean that millions of people do not have enough food. Even here we are feeling the impact of this. CAFOD works with small farmers around the world who produce lots of the world's food.

But many of them are facing a huge problem.

For hundreds of years they have freely used and shared their own seeds, but laws are being passed that limit what they are allowed to do with their own seeds, giving them little choice but to buy more expensive seeds from large companies. These laws make it even harder for small farmers and their families to produce enough food. Salina is a small farmer from Bangladesh and she told CAFOD "to keep the seeds in our own hands is the main thing. With out seeds, being a farmer is not possible."

Small farmers are doing important work protecting God's creation and ensuring that seeds are used to feed us all.

In Genesis, God says, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the earth, and every tree with seed as its fruit; you shall have them for food." That is why Salina is writing a letter to the World Bank, which has a lot of influence over agricultural issues, asking them to protect the rights of small farmers to use and share their own seeds.

This weekend please sign Salina's letter. By this we can send a strong message to the World Bank that the Catholic Community stands with small-scale farmers.

Prayer: Renew our hope:

'Living God, we gave you thanks for the wonder of your creation which reflects your glory. From the tiniest seed new life break through, shoots grow and fruit multiplies, yielding a feast for your people. But we have strayed from your path and these riches are no longer shared by all. Renew our hope that another way is possible. Strengthen our voices as we proclaim what is right and just. And be with us as we stand together throughout the world sowing seeds of a brighter future where everyone has enough to eat.'

An invitation to survivors of abuse

The diocese would very much appreciate hearing from people who have a lived experience of abuse, so that we can involve them in the work we are doing to support survivors. We would welcome the opportunity to hear survivors' feedback and ideas so that we can improve our response to those who have been hurt by abuse. If you think you might be able to help us in this work, or if you would like to find out more about what we are doing in the diocese to support survivors, please contact: Sophie Scagell (Survivor Support Caseworker) on 01364 645436 / sophie.scagell@prcdtr.org.uk

Silver Jubilee celebration. Where do I begin to say thank you to so many people for the wonderful celebration of my Silver Jubilee recently? Most of it was a total surprise.

I thought there would be a simple gathering after Mass, but what a revelation. So many parishioners had worked so hard so that from the Introit of the Mass, sung on the new Processional ramp to a full church, wonderful to see some sitting in the new north aisle pews, and the glory of the music: a very worthy offering. Then afterwards to the magnificent new hall, with so much space that about 130 people had plenty of room to circulate, and a fitting drinks bar on the way to the tables groaning with plenty of food for lunch! Thanks to the many who provided food and drink and helped serve them. Very many thanks also to those who thoroughly cleaned the new kitchen and hall. Thanks to Christine and David had as ever a great hand in tying it all together. I was touched to hear from the two Monsignors, both younger than I but we had known each other many years, to the utter amazement to hear of the collection for one of the new north aisle windows which will be of St John Henry Newman. I understand to date, that the fund is currently at £4,720, and that the cost of the window and its installation is approx. £7K (I'm sure we can make that target!) Many lovely photos were taken, thanks to Howard Phillips. which are in a book circulating. Thanks also for some gifts and the many cards. On the anniversary day, 3rd our parish school invited me to an afternoon assembly, where they presented me with a 'Tree' the green leaves of which had a fingerprint of each child in the school. Beautiful, This was followed for our 'chapel team' with a Cream Tea in the Head's office. Thanks a million to all!

Wednesday Friendship Club will meet on 26th July when our parishioner authoress Chris Higgins will be reading from her new books. 2 p.m. All welcome

St Charbel Makhlof 1828-1898, 24th July. Hailing from Lebanon Charbel was a priest and monk in the Maronite Church, a self-governing Eastern Catholic Church in communion with Rome. Charbel acquired a wide reputation for holiness during his lifetime, and for promoting peaceful dialogue between Christians and Muslims. One of five children he was born in the Lebanese mountains and raised in a devout Maronite home. He received the habit at the Monastery of St Maron in Annaya and made his solemn vows in 1853. He was sent to the seminary of Ss Cyprian & Justina in Kfifan to prepare for holy orders; after ordination returned to his monastery, where he spent the rest of his life in prayer and self-mortification. In 1875, he entered the eremitical life, and lived alone in a hermitage belonging to his monastery. After his death in 1898 he became known as a powerful intercessor- "the miracle monk of Lebanon" and miraculous events are reported to have taken place at his tomb. St Pope Paul VI beatified him in 1965 and he was canonised in 1977. His feast day is kept in the west on 24 July, and in the east on the third Sunday in July.

(from this month's Catholic Herald: Saint of the month)

His statue is in St Joseph's Hayle all this month.

Parishioners Magellan, Sophie, Sebastian and Florence Makhlof are close relatives.

Keep Your Ticket Office: Fr David and I both use the ticket office in Penzance railway station for our travel to our Cathedral in Plymouth. Neither of us are computer wise enough or want to do it online. Consultations are only open until 26th July. See posters in our churches.
