Penzance: Saturdays from 4.15- 4.45 p.m. St Ives Sunday before Mass 8.30 a.m. or Wednesdays Hayle after 6.30 p.m. Mass or Tuesdays before Mass or by appointment

Walsingham: We had a prayerful and happy pilgrimage; fewer in number for various reasons, but we prayed and offered all your intentions to Our Lady of Walsingham.

A Novena of Masses for our whole parish began on Sunday 10th.

We have provisionally booked for next year from Sunday 16th to Saturday 22nd October 2022. Christine will want to know by the end of January a rough idea of how many would like to join us. The usual £50 deposit if you wish to reserve a place..

Returning from Walsingham I had over 60 emails, only a few spam. Being away for 1 week in the 'old days' we never used to return to 60 letters. And of course, everyone now expects an instant answer. Sinking under the load.

Christmas Bazaar: St John's Hall in Penzance on Saturday 20th November from 10 – 2 p.m.

A meeting of stall holders and helpers on Wednesday 27th at 2 p.m. in Penzance church to discuss details and arrangements. (if you can't make it please let Christine know your continued interest. 362619 or 369921)

Grand Draw tickets on sale this weekend. Please sell as many as you can. We do need good prizes for this. The Christmas Hamper list is in church. Please put your name to what you can contribute. Boxes for items for goods to stock the stalls are in all churches.

We hope our sacramental programmes for First Reconciliation and Holy Communion: Confirmation and RCIA will begin soon. Please let us have names and contact details of anyone, child or adult wishing to explore any of these, by phone or email all as above.

We need to clear the old hall before any meeting can take place. At the moment it is full of new woodwork and tiles for the building works.

COVID-19 Route Map Step 4 Guidance: Life continues very uncertain, Cornwall remains high on the list, so we continue to PROCEED WITH CAUTION. Out of respect for each other, we will continue to wear face coverings and the designated seating to enable our safety. This will be essential as we phase back in our singing. Wearing masks for congregational singing isn't the most comfortable thing, but will help to control the spread of aerosols projected by this activity. Care must be taken to ensure everyone is, and feels, safe.

HANDS – FACE – SPACE. A little relaxation maybe, but do be aware of the feelings of others.

North Aisle Phase 2 Project: 'How we can all help now to bring this exciting project to completion.' A booklet with all details is available to take away and consider, and share. If you didn't receive a copy do ask, as indeed in our other churches, do ask for a copy. It is on our website too. Thanks already to generosity the Angelus bell and the 12 pews are already fully donated. .

COP26: see this leaflet asking us to sign a petition urging leaders to make sure communities hardest hit by the climate emergency are listed to at COP26 Sign at: cafod.org.uk/reclaim.

For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission –The Synodal journey is concerned with how teaching can be lived and applied in the changing contexts of our time. This journey is an opportunity to listen to each other and the Holy Spirit and to reflect on our future path. We want everyone to have an opportunity to express their views. Resources will be provided by the Diocese to parishes, schools and groups to support this listening and discernment process.

Everyone is also warmly invited to attend one of our initial introductory online events to explain the Synodal journey in more detail and how we plan to go forward in our Diocese. There are two options:

Wednesday 20th October from 7-8.30 pm [register here]
Or Saturday 23 October from 10.30-12.00 noon [register here]. You can also register via email to synodfeedback@prcdtr.org.uk

Cardinal Langley Music ensemble: Short concert after 11 Mass next Sunday 24th our 178th birthday celebration.

CORNISH CHRISTMAS CARD: Fr. Robbie Low writes: 'Want to send a real Cornish Christmas card?' 'The Rest on the Flight into Egypt', by Harold Harvey, is available from the Aid to the Church in Need website shop. (<https://acnuk.org/shop/>) Harvey, a convert and the only genuine Cornishman in the famous Newlyn School of artists, painted this beautiful image of the Holy Family in 1927. The Christ Child gives His blessing from the harbour wall, the signpost is the Cross, the inn is the Lamb and Flag and the background to Our Lady and Joseph are the hills of Penwith. The image is available courtesy of the Trustees and all revenues go to the wonderful work of ACN. It was the wish of the late Rachel John, Catholic Historian and Cornish Bard, that this converting image be as widely known as possible and each of our church schools has a copy.

A person can bear all things provided they possess Christ Jesus dwelling within them, as a friend and affectionate guide. Christ gives us help and strength, never deserts us and is true and sincere. (St Teresa of Avila)
