CAFOD & Seeds and the World Bank.

The world is facing a food crisis. Climate Change, Covid19, and the war in Ukraine and elsewhere mean that millions of people do not have enough food. Even here we are feeling the impact of this. CAFOD works with small farmers around the world who produce lots of the world's food.

But many of them are facing a huge problem.

For hundreds of years they have freely used and shared their own seeds, but laws are being passed that limit what they are allowed to do with their own seeds, giving them little choice but to buy more expensive seeds from large companies. These laws make it even harder for small farmers and their families to produce enough food. Salina is a small farmer from Bangladesh and she told CAFOD "to keep the seeds in our own hands is the main thing. With out seeds, being a farmer is not possible."

Small farmers are doing important work protecting God's creation and ensuring that seeds are used to feed us all.

In Genesis, God says, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the earth, and every tree with seed as its fruit; you shall have them for food." That is why Salina is writing a letter to the World Bank, which has a lot of influence over agricultural issues, asking them to protect the rights of small farmers to use and share their own seeds.

This is the last weekend to sign Salina's letter. By this we can send a strong message to the World Bank that the Catholic Community stands with small-scale farmers.

Prayer: Renew our hope:

'Living God, we gave you thanks for the wonder of your creation which reflects your glory. From the tiniest seed new life break through, shoots grow and fruit multiplies, yielding a feast for your people. But we have strayed from your path and these riches are no longer shared by all. Renew our hope that another way is possible. Strengthen our voices as we proclaim what is right and just. And be with us as we stand together throughout the world sowing seeds of a brighter future where everyone has enough to eat.'

An invitation to survivors of abuse

The diocese would very much appreciate hearing from people who have a lived experience of abuse, so that we can involve them in the work we are doing to support survivors. We would welcome the opportunity to hear survivors' feedback and ideas so that we can improve our response to those who have been hurt by abuse. If you think you might be able to help us in this work, or if you would like to find out more about what we are doing in the diocese to support survivors, please contact: Sophie Scagell (Survivor Support Caseworker) on 01364 645436 / sophie.scagell@prcdtr.org.uk

Silver Jubilee collection for one of the new north aisle windows of St John Henry Newman. To date, the fund is currently at £4,925 and that the cost of the window and its installation is approx. £7K (I'm sure we can make that target!)

Car Park Sunday 2nd July 11 Mass. A parishioner was very concerned that she may have caused slight damage to a car in the car park that day. If anyone of you noticed some damage to your car that day, please let me know, as the parishioner wishes to put things right. Fr P

St Charbel Makhlof 1828-1898, 24th July. Hailing from Lebanon Charbel was a priest and monk in the Maronite Church, a self-governing Eastern Catholic Church in communion with Rome. Charbel acquired a wide reputation for holiness during his lifetime, and for promoting peaceful dialogue between Christians and Muslims. One of five children he was born in the Lebanese mountains and raised in a devout Maronite home. He received the habit at the Monastery of St Maron in Annaya and made his solemn vows in 1853. He was sent to the seminary of Ss Cyprian & Justina in Kfifan to prepare for holy orders; after ordination returned to his monastery, where he spent the rest of his life in prayer and self-mortification. In 1875, he entered the eremitical life, and lived alone in a hermitage belonging to his monastery. After his death in 1898 he became known as a powerful intercessor- "the miracle monk of Lebanon" and miraculous events are reported to have taken place at his tomb. St Pope Paul VI beatified him in 1965 and he was canonised in 1977. His feast day is kept in the west on 24 July, and in the east on the third Sunday in July.

(from this month's Catholic Herald: Saint of the month)

His statue is in St Joseph's Hayle all this month.

Parishioners Magellan, Sophie, Sebastian and Florence Makhlof are close relatives.

Keep Your Ticket Office. Consultations are only open until 26th July. See posters in our churches.

Children's Catechists support day

Two of our catechists went to Bodmin on Saturday to attend a support day for catechists, led by Jeremy Skelton – from the Diocesan Education Service. Fr Robbie Low was the keynote speaker, with Fr Deeny and Sarah Skelton (Head of PACE at Sir John Hunt community college Plymouth. PACE = Playfulness, Acceptance, Curiosity and Empathy).

An excellent day to share what different church communities do for their children and young people; to think about why and what we can provide; to support each other in our different situations; and to make contacts so that we can share ideas and diocesan events together. In our parish as we get back to our activities post-pandemic, it would be great to hear ideas from parishioners around how to support our young people in their faith journey.

Sweet August doth soon appear: Cream Tea on Sunday 13th at 3 p.m.

You are invited to a social time and a cream tea. Most monthly/weekly events & meetings have a break in August, but for those not away or not mowed out by family do join us. We would be glad of gifts of cream and scones. We have plenty of jam! Donations towards the tea, and of course a raffle. Bingo is also on Wednesday 16 that week.
