The dates for Father Philip's funeral have been sent out by the Diocese and his funeral will be at our church in Penzance, and the arrangements will be as follows:

He will be received into the church during Sung Evening Prayer for the Dead at 6.00 p.m. on Wednesday 25 September.

His Requiem Mass will be the following day at 12 noon 26 September followed by burial at Penzance Cemetery.

Dear parishioners of Holy Family Parish, Penzance,

My thoughts and prayers are with you all in this time of grief and loss. Fr Philip was a good and faithful priest who gave of himself generously, selflessly, with humour and love. He was an example of faith to us all particularly in his last few months when it became clear that he would not recover from his cancer. I know that each of us will have stories and reminiscences of Fr Philip, and I would encourage you to share them with each other and celebrate the love that he gave so readily. In that way we support each other and remind ourselves of the truth that love is sacred and comes ultimately from God himself.

Please keep Fr Philip, his family and all who knew him in your prayers. In that way we accompany Fr Philip, and each other, in our pilgrimage of faith until we all meet again in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

May God bless you all

Canon Paul Cummins, Diocesan Administrator

Father Philip's Anniversary Window: The window of St John Henry Newman that many parishioners and friends generously collected for, to mark his Silver Jubilee as a priest of the Plymouth Diocese has been fitted this week. They look stunning (in his own words) and he saw the photograph of the finished window before he died. The St Eugene de Mazenod window next to St Newman's window was generously funded by a parishioner in gratitude of his ministry, for which we as a parish are very grateful for.
