From father Michael –

One Easter, One Parish and One Vision for the Future

This great parish has four churches but the Easter Triduum – Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday – will only be celebrated in one of them, the Parish Church of the Immaculate Conception. This celebration is the bedrock of everything we do as Catholics across the whole of West Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.

During the Easter season I will be actively searching out representatives from all our churches and communities to form a Finance Committee for the whole parish. My vision for the future points in two directions at the same time, on the one hand to increase the sense of us all belonging to one central parish, while on the other hand empowering each local community to take more responsibility for its own life and mission.

At the Easter Vigil, on Holy Saturday, we will bless four Easter Candles - one for each of our churches. Please see this as symbolic of our life together in this one parish. We start at the centre with our solemn celebration of Our Lord's death and resurrection, and we take that celebration out to the peripheries of our parish, to the peripheries of our lives. First of all though, of course, with palms and olive branches we will greet Jesus in his entry into Jerusalem and ponder together the Passion as recounted by Matthew.

May we all have a blessed and wonderful Holy Week and Easter.

Good Friday ecumenical walk of witness in Penzance 11:30am – Assembling at the Bus Station

Eucharistic ministers play a vital role in assisting the priest at Mass, and in taking Holy Communion to the sick and the housebound. At Mass on Maundy Thursday I will invite all our Eucharistic ministers to join me at the altar to receive and renew their commissioning for this ministry. Please support them with your prayers.
