Following Pentecost last Sunday it is good to remind ourselves of both the Gifts and the Fruits of the Spirit.

The Sevenfold Gifts are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear (awe) of the Lord. They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them

The Twelve Fruits of the Spirit are: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity. They are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us, having received the Gifts, as the first fruits of eternal glory. The Gifts are what 'come in,' the Fruits what we should produce.

Pentecost Thoughts from a sermon of St Anthony of Padua (d.1251)

A person who is filled with the Holy Spirit speaks several languages. These several languages are the various ways of witnessing to Christ, such as humility, poverty, obedience and patience, with which we speak when we practise them towards our neighbour. Language comes alive when it speaks by deeds. Enough of talking; let actions speak. Let us speak then as the Holy Spirit gives us utterance. Let us ask him humbly and earnestly to bestow grace on us, that we may fulfil the day of Pentecost by the perfection of our five senses and our observance of the 10 Commandments. Let us ask for a keen sentiment of contrition, and for fiery tongues to profess the true faith so that inspired and enlightened in the splendours of the saints, we may be found worthy to behold the Blessed Trinity, the one God.

Young Catholic Adults in Plymouth Diocese. A note from Ian Jackson, based in Plymouth, would like to start a group to get to know others in our scattered diocese on facebook: <https://facebook.com/groups/738397836590050/>

Young Christian Climate Network are organising a relay pilgrimage from the G7 summit here to COP26 in Glasgow. They are walking as an act of solidarity and faith because they believe no country should be pushed further into debt due to climate change, and these decisions are being made on the UK's doorstep. More info contact Michael Hooper relay@yccn.uk or michael10hooper@gmail.com

Diocese of Plymouth Environmental Policy: Our Christian responsibility for the planet begins with appreciation of the goodness of all of God's creation: "God saw everything that he had made, and behold it was very good." (Genesis 1:31) This will be on the Diocesan website. If you would like a paper copy let me know. Fr. P

"A precious place of God's Grace" the document from the diocese looking to 2025 in terms of parish structures, availability of priests, provision of sacramental life and the resources need to meet the evangelising mission of the Church, was encouraged by A Church on Fire – the presentation to the clergy/laity of our diocese on missionary disciples by Michael Dopp on May 1st. this can now be viewed on the Diocesan Website, www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk or directly on YouTube https://youtu.be/E8_O66UUM5s

Over 200 people joined us live for this great day, so here is your chance to listen again or hear this crucial talk for the first time. Encouraged and inspired, you are invited to participate in our well established deeper formation in missionary discipleship through Mission Made Possible, provided by the Diocesan Vicariate for Evangelisation & Catechesis. Mary's Meals. This parish has always generously supported the work of the charity Mary's Meals. The charity aims to provide a free meal for every child in school every school day around the world, believing that helping children to stay in school and gain an education can lift communities out of poverty. If you do not yet know about this charity, please visit their website www.marysmeals.org.uk or ask us. We would like to form a group to help Mary's Meals in prayer, fundraising, awareness-raising or using any skills/knowledge which a potential group may have. Please contact Fr Philip or Anthea Smith if you would be interested in helping and coming to an initial socially distanced meeting. Thank you.

Lockdown: Cautious easements on restrictions come in but It is still important to remember we are still in some lockdown, and the general principles of creating a safe environment in places of worship and their ancillary buildings are not abandoned, so we need to keep the Covid restrictions in place to remain as clear as possible of infection. HANDS – FACE- SPACE. Please do be aware of SPACE: make sure there is safe distance all round you, so that you are not breathing down someone else's neck. However it is possible to make a reassessment of the Covid secure seating capacity, as more people rightly return to Mass. Very many have had both vaccines, others at least one, and with ventilation, and still observing face coverings, we can look at accommodating more. We still need to keep the 1 metre distance, and please everyone be aware of each other and be sensitive to those who do want to keep a safe distance..

Hayle Beach Sat: 12 June lunchtime: A community Arts Project for you to join in:

A thousand local people form a socially distanced grid on the vast and stunning expanse of Hayle Beach. Each has a sustainably sourced whirly tube that we will send out, the simplest of musical instruments. One by one they become a huge ensemble making a beautiful plaintive cry across the sand to the G7 leaders using only our bodies, fine Cornish air and repurposed marine litter.

You can sign up on their website, it is free to take part: <https://www.tete-a-tete.org.uk/event/song-of-the-sea/>

Congratulations to four of our parishioners who were recently elected to our local councils: Steve Hynes for St Ives; Tim Dean for the Isles of Scilly; Simon Elliott, for Ludgvan and his son Will Elliott for Penzance and who has been declared Deputy Mayor of Penzance: I gather the youngest ever to hold that office in the town. We keep them all in our prayers.

Quote: Pope St Leo the Great: "Christian recognize your dignity now that you share in God's nature."

Am I alone? I want nothing to do with Smart Phones, Smart Meters or Smart Motorways. Fr P.
