

Women's World of Day of Prayer 2016

Women's World of Day of Prayer will be celebrated on Friday 4th March. This year's service has been written by the Christians women of Cuba, a country which is in the news at moment as talks begin which may see an end to the United States' embargo which has devastated the country for more than 50 years. The title of the service is 'Receive children. Receive me.' but that doesn't mean that it's only about children!

Women's World of Day of Prayer is the largest ecumenical movement in the world. The service written by the Christian women of Cuba will be used at ecumenical gatherings of men and women in 170 countries and islands throughout the world. It. Details of services in Cornwall so far as they are known at present are given below.

Note that these services are equally as interesting and thought-provoking to men as to women. Just because a service is written by women doesn't mean that only women should attend!
